

SingerSingerLast name:Bohorodchany \(Brotchin\)Community:.PhysicianProfession and occupation:*Additional information:

, was a physician in Bohorodczany in the 1930s. He Nadler Dr. Singer, son in law of the teacher "worked from an ornate office right in the center of town. His practice extended well beyond the Jewish community and [...] he counted many non-Jews among his patients. [...] He was one of the Mark My M. Hasten first to be killed by the Nazis in their campaign to eliminate the intelligentsia." (, 9). Words

<http://jgaliciabukovina.net/he/node/112337>Source URL: