Description:

Stores and apartment buildings on the Rynek (the market) square. The building on the right, Vidrodzhennia (former Pilsudskiego) 6, housed a Jewish public library, named after Yitzhok Leibush Peretz , and the office of brewery owner Brettler. To the left of it in the 1930's there was a pottery shop of Avner brothers (Vidrodzhennia4) and nearby (Vidrodzhennia 5) was the office of the lawyer Y. Ashkenazi.
