

Galicia: A Multicultured Land

Published on JEWISH GALICIA & BUKOVINA (<http://jgaliciabukovina.net>)

Galicia: A Multicultured Land

Author: Hann, Christopher and Paul Robert Magocsi (eds.)

Title: Galicia: A Multicultured Land

Publisher: University of Toronto Press

Publishing place: Toronto

Date: 2005

Publication Language: English

Subjects: Jews and Their Surroundings

Remarks:

Including references to Jews in various aspects (according to index), and chiefly in the following articles:

3-21: Magocsi Paul Robert, '1. Galicia: A European Land': includes a general overview of Galicia and its importance (10-12).

22-35: Himka John Paul, '2. Confessional Relations in Galicia': includes an elaborated reference to Jews' relationships with their surroundings (22, 23, 25—30), and in relation to the Austrian period (27-30).

36-51: Motylewicz Jerzy, 'Ethnic Communities in the Towns of the Polish-Ukrainian Borderland in the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Centuries': includes a chapter about Jews ('Jews', 44-45).

Source URL:<http://jgaliciabukovina.net/node/186497>