

Pinchas Halevi Horwitz

Ohalei Shem - Horwitz

Name: Pinchas Halevi

Last name: Horwitz

Date of birth: 1867

Date of death: 1920

Father: Shaul Halevi Horwitz

Father's name: Shaul Halevi

Community: Tysmenytsia
Bohorodchany \(Brotchin\)

Died in: Bohorodchany \(Brotchin\)

Organizations: Ahavat Zion in Tarnow

Additional information:

A descendant of a famous family of rabbis (Ohalei Shem, 223-4).

Rabbi of Bohorodchany from 1898 till 1920. Head of the yeshiva "Torat Haim" in Bohorodchany (Ohalei Shem, 223-4).

On his election and pro-Zionist stance see Ha-magid, no. 1, 5 January 1899, p. 5.

During the conference of the "Ahavat Zion" in Tarnow in April 1899, Rabbi Hurvits was elected a member of the association's Board (Gelber, Toldot, 1:367). He followed the example of his

Pinchas Halevi Horwitz

Published on JEWISH GALICIA & BUKOVINA (<http://jgaliciabukovina.net>)

predecessor R. Schreier and published a halakhic decision preferring etrogim from the Land of Israel (Marcus, Pri Etz Hadar, 20; Ha-magid, no. 39, 27 September 1900, cover).

He left behind unpublished responsa, commentary on the Talmud, a work on the Torah, and other writings (Ohalei Shem, 223-4; Pinkas Hakehilot, 72).

He was also active in Orthodox Jewish politics and took part in the World congress of Orthodox rabbis convened in Kraków in 1903 (Ha-magid, no. 31, 20 August 1903, p. 354).

Source URL:<http://jgaliciabukovina.net/node/112341>