
Philanthropic Activity of the Jewish Entrepreneurs of Drohobych and Boryslaw as an Indicator of Modernity.

Community: Drohobych
Boryslav

Author: Vladislava Moskalets

Author analyses philanthropic activity of the Jewish community in Drohobych and Boryslaw, focusing on entrepreneurs in the second half of the XIXth century. The article aims to demonstrate charitable strategies and directions of the activity both of organizations and private philanthropists. Another point is to understand the role of Western European organizations in change of this strategies.

Вісник НТУ «ХПІ». 2013. No 25 (998) (in Ukrainian)

Attached files: http://jgaliciabukovina.net/sites/default/files/article_file/Article.pdf

Written on: 28.11.2013

Source URL: <http://jgaliciabukovina.net/node/147618>